

IELTS General Writing Task 1, Lesson 5: useful phrases

Here are the phrases shown in the video lesson. I've added ideas (in blue) so that you can see how each phrase is used in a full sentence. Note: the phrases are not related to each other; each one is just a separate example.

INFORMAL LETTERS

Beginning:

- I hope you're well.
- I hope this letter finds you well.
- I hope you enjoyed your trip to London.
- I'm just writing to let you know that we received your gift.
- I'm just writing to thank you for checking on the house while we were away.
- I just wanted to write a quick letter to tell you that we've moved house.

Ending:

- I hope to see you soon!
- Hope to see you then!
- Enjoy your stay / trip / holiday.
- Best of luck with your test.
- I'm sure you'll have a great time.
- Keep in touch!
- Say hello to the family!
- I look forward to catching up with you soon.

Thanking someone:

- I'm just writing to thank you for all the help that you've given me over the last year.
- I can't thank you enough for everything that you've done.
- Thank you so much for letting us stay in the apartment. It was really kind of you.

Requesting (asking for something):

- I hope you don't mind me asking, but could you possibly give me a hand this weekend?
- I'd be really grateful if you could pop in to check on the house while we're away.
- I'm just writing to ask whether you could look after my cat for a few days.
- It would be great if you could help us with this.

Making a suggestion:

- I was wondering if you would like to come on holiday with us.
- Why don't we meet for lunch next week?
- Why don't you stay over at our house while you're here?
- You're more than welcome to sleep in the spare room.
- And don't forget to check out that new restaurant that I told you about.

Problems / excuses:

- I'd love to accept your invitation, but unfortunately I'll be away that weekend.
- I'm afraid I won't be able to come to your birthday party.
- Sorry I didn't write to you earlier, but I've been really busy at work recently.
- This is why I didn't have time to call you.

Saying sorry:

- Sorry I didn't write to you earlier.
- I'm so sorry that I wasn't able to be there on your special day.
- I really hope you'll forgive me for forgetting that it was your birthday last Sunday.
- By way of an apology, I'd like to take you both out for lunch.

FORMAL LETTERSBeginning:

- I am writing with regard to a product that I recently purchased from your store.
- I am writing to request that you refund my payment.
- I am writing to thank you for your support over the course of the last year.
- I am writing to inform you that I have decided to resign from my post.
- I am writing to inform you of my decision to accept an offer from a company in London.
- I am writing to complain about the condition of the local park.
- I am writing to bring to your attention the increasing number of accidents on street.

Ending:

- On behalf of all of my colleagues, I would like to thank you for providing such a professional service.
- Thank you for your help and support.
- I look forward to receiving your response.
- I await your prompt response.
- I hope that you will address these concerns as soon as possible.
- Please let me know if you require any further information.
- I hope that my request does not cause you any inconvenience.

Thanking someone:

- I am writing to thank you for making our stay at your hotel such an enjoyable one.
- I am grateful for all the support that you have given me during my time working here.
- We would all like to thank you for organising such a wonderful event.

Requesting (asking for something):

- I have decided that I would like to cancel my subscription to your magazine.
- I would therefore ask that you send all post to my new address.
- I would also like to you contact me by phone when you receive this letter.
- I was wondering if it would be possible for me to rejoin the course next year.
- I would be extremely grateful if you could send the item before the end of the week.
- I would like to request that you contact me by email.
- I would appreciate it if you could replace the damaged item free of charge.

Making a suggestion:

- I would like to suggest that you look into this issue further.
- Another solution would be to improve the signage in your hotel.
- As the mistake was caused by your company, I hope that you will reimburse the taxi fare that I paid.

Complaining about a problem:

- I am writing to complain about the way that I was treated by a member of your staff.
- I would like to express my dissatisfaction with an item that I bought in your shop.
- I was extremely disappointed with the assistance that I received when I contacted you.
- Unfortunately, there were no other free rooms.
- As a result of this error, I was unable to attend an important meeting.
- The issue that most concerns me is the danger that this presents to children.
- I hope that you will address these concerns as soon as possible.

Apologising (saying sorry):

- I would like to apologise for my late arrival at Friday's conference.
- Please accept my sincere apologies.

Try using the phrases above to make your own sentences.

You can read more sample letters by going through the lessons on this page of my blog.